The Republicans in Convention Wrangle for Twelve Hours Over Nomination Governor.

ADJOURNED TILL TO-MORROW

| Speaker Cannon Presided Over Session and Prevented Disorder in the Hall.

(By Associated Press.) SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 13.—After a continuance of more than twelve hours and after taking fifteen ballots, the Illinois Republican Convention at 10:28 o'clock to-night took a recess until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning without having named a candidate for Governor.

During the long hours the convention was in session, it was in a practical deadlock, and when by general consent the recess was taken to-night, neither of the seven candidates had secured an advantage of any moment. Each was holding practically his original strength. While the balloting went on the minority leaders held frequent conferences, trying to effect a compromise, but all of their efforts were for naught and there is nothforts were for naught and there is nothforts were for naught and there is nothing in the situation to-night to warrant the prediction of a break to-morrow.

The convention was at once the largest ever held in the State. The great convention hall was packed with fully 10,000 persons during the session and at times were the most turbulent, only the good nature of Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the national House of Representatives, who presided, preventing utter riot in the convention hall.

The Yates-Lowden combination was in nomplete control, and the opposition decided to make no fight against the seatfing of the Yates and Lowden delegates, realizing that they would split when the question of nominating a Governor was reached, nor was there any discussion over the platform, and the four delegates at large to the National Convention, Senators Cullom and Hopkins, Speaker Cannon and Governor Yates, were selected by acclamation.

At the end of the fifteenth ballot, the yote stood:
Yates, 495; Lowden, 406 3-66; Dencen,

Note stood:
Yates, 495; Lowden, 406 9-86; Deneen, 851 57-66; Hamlin, 111; Warner, 36; Sherman, 51; Pierce, 21.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. May 13.—
The partial programme of the Republican party in the coming campaign in this state leaked out here to-day. It is now certain that the Republicans will nominate in the Fifth Datrict to oppose Congressman W. W. Ritchen Postmaster Charles A. Reynolds, of this city, former Lieutenant-Governor.

The Congressional Convention meets next Tuesday at Greensboro, and the State Convention the next day. Just what is going to take places not known, but it is understood to be the intention of the leaders to press the nomination of cither R. Z. Linney, ex-congressman, or Cyrus Thompson, ex-Secretary of State, for Governor.

Thompson, ex-Secretary of State, for Governor.

The great struggle will be for delegates at large to Chicago. One slate is already fixed, embracing E. C. Duncan, of Newbern, internal revenue collector of the Eastern District; A. E. Holton, of Winston, district attorney of the Western District; Charles Price, of Salisbury, father of the defeated candidate for nomination in the Eighth District, and B. Frank MeBane, of Spray, cotton manufacturer. It is understood that the President Will request that Henry G. Cheatham, the colored recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia, he made a delegate at large, but if his name is sprung much bitterness will be aroused.

Members of Council Express Themselves as Confident of Renomination.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

There was nothing of importance for the City Assembly to do last night. That body got together mainly because it was the regular meeting night. Reports from the various standing committees indicated that the Council had done its share of good work during the month, and that the departments were in fine working a word with political significance was uttered.

The session was short. After the meeting there was lots of political talk. Not one of the men present felt the slightest alarm about his re-election.

"All my political fences have been fixed," they said, as one man.

Mr. Grizzard and Mr. Wakefield, upon whose nominations there are fights, were in excellent form, and they expressed themselves as feeling that the opposition against them, the reason for which they could not conjecture, had about passed over.

"The people who are fighting them," said another councilman, "would better the meeting last night because of the illness of his brother.

CAMPAIGN CLOSING.

CAMPAIGN CLOSING.

The heated primary campaign will close on Monday night. A good fight has been made by both sides, and the lining up tends to show that Mayor Maurice will probably succeed himself, with a good majority of the four hundred votes, while Mr. John Moore may be the only new alderman. The lower branch will probably be about what it is now, with the exception of two new men in the Second Ward in place of Councilmen Fahr and Sampson, who will retire from politics at the close of their present terms.

PERSONAL AND BRIEFS.

Fireman W. E. Smith celebrated the raising of the quarantine from his home yesterday by going to the big fire and doing some great work.

Stationman Cotton was struck on the head by a failing brick at the fire yesterday, but he was all right last night. Mayor Maurice turned into the city treasury last month $199.50, as fines from the Police Court.

There were no cases in the Mayor's court yesterday.

Commander James Power Smith presided. Interest in the trip to the Nashville reunion was very great and the chairman of the committee, stated he expected that between seventy-five and eighty of the comrades would go.

The camp decided to go by the Southern Railway, and instructed Quartermaster Brown to make detailed arrangements for the trip. Besides the camp a number of ladies connected with memorial associations and other Confederate organizations will go to the reunion.

As soon as it became known that Captain Bowles had taken this action many of the members of the company called upon him and urged him to reconsider his action and withdraw his resignation and it is probable that he will do this. In fact, it is currently reported that afteen or twenty o fthe men have expressed an intention to ask for their discharges in the event that Captain Bowles retired.

The captain was seen yesterday by a reporter for The Times-Dispatch, and asked as to the reason for his action. He stated that the demands of the duties of the command of the company upon his time were so heavy that he had concluded to retire. There was absolutely no friction in the command so far as he knew, and he had no reason for forwarding his resignation, other than that stated. Asked if he would withdraw his resignation, he intimated that he might do so, but made no positive statement.
